Budget for the

Proposal by the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum

March 15, 1983

1. to produce a series of educational and historical programs, of the highest artistic quality, and present them, in Room 301 Carbondale City Hall, in the city of Carbondale, and throughout Lackawanna County, to the public, in general, and to junior and senior high school students and senior citizens, in particular.

   A. VISUAL ARTS EXHIBITIONS AND HISTORICAL DISPLAYS IN ROOM 301 CARBONDALE CITY HALL: ("Portraits of Carbondale Mayors," April-May, 1983; "Carbondale Artists, Photographers and Craftsmen," June-July, 1983; "The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company's Gravity Railroad," August-September, 1983; "The Lackawanna Valley: Maps and Engravings," October-December, 1983); these exhibitions and displays will be available for lending to other museums, gallerys and historical societies in Lackawanna County.

      Mats, frames and other expenses related to mounting these five exhibitions.....$300

   B. LECTURE AND FILM SERIES: (Illustrated Lectures: "Carbondale: 1800-1851," May 26, 1983; "Carbondale: 1851-1880," September 29, 1983; "Carbondale: 1880-1901," October 27, 1983; "Carbondale: 1901-1950," November 17, 1983; "Carbondale: 1950-1983," December 16, 1983); (Films: "Pioneer Carbondale," May 26, 1983; "Carbondale: 1983," December 16, 1983); each of these illustrated lectures and films will be presented three times on the days indicated: once in Carbondale Area Junior-Senior High School, once in the Senior Citizen Center in Carbondale and once in Room 301 Carbondale City Hall.

      Production of 5 slide presentations, of 100 slides each, and 2 thirty-minute,
      16-millimeter color films.....$700

   C. LECTURE SERIES: CARBONDALE PIONEER DAYS, August 22-27, 1983
      ("The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company's Gravity Railroad," August 22; "Dorflinger Glass," August 23; "Carbondale Maps," August 24; "The New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company," August 25; "Pioneer Carbondale," August 26); each of these illustrated lectures will be presented twice on the days indicated, at 2 P.M. and at 7 P.M., in Carbondale City Hall.

      Production of 5 slide presentations, of 100 slides each.....$200